A perfect match

The trend in hotel decor is becoming more and more inspired by natural materials and not least by mixing the different materials. We especially see this trend in the new design hotels and beach clubs, where outdoor areas are decorated to create places where all senses are allowed to experience nature and the joy of being on a voyage.

Modern & natural

Mixing bamboo and doum gives a modern and stylish look. The natural shapes and Scandinavian design goes well together, and the two details form furniture which are extremely popular in both the design-conscious hotels and beach club.

The combination of bamboo furniture and Doum furniture makes it easy to create a relaxing environment where guests can lean back and sit comfortably. Use bamboo furniture to create a lounge environment where people can enjoy life and engage in good conversations, or where families and friends can gather and share the day's experiences.

Take a seat, stick your toes in the sand, and keep them there until it is time to return home.

Dramatic dark tones and milky white magic

Every day ceramics teaches us about humility and to access things with love and small touches. The Dine ceramics from tinekhome is full of Asian richness, Japanese inspiration and invitations to slow down and enjoy the details and materials of the ceramics, as well as the taste and smell of the served food. The elegant porcelain bowls brings magic to the dinner table through the glaze texture and colors.

The use of elegant porcelain of genuine craftsmanship makes the natural calmness of the material go hand in hand with the exclusive simplicity that culminates in a beautiful milky white magic, dramatic dark tones, and marvelous green colors.

Let the ceramics find balance in your home and experience how lively the white glaze is when it reflects light, or how deep the dark glaze is when dark colors absorb light.

Tanizaki, a famous Japanese writer, told that the best light for ceramic, is the shadow.

Koldskål

- A beloved Danish dish

Light the way

Cultures meet each other in timeless lanterns with their classic straight lines and traditional crafts. The lanterns are diverse and light paths or greet guests at the entrance. Let the candle lights burn in the dark tropical evenings and in the cool Nordic winter days.

Look up and be enchanted by the light

Let your guests eyes move around the room and let them experience every detail of their stay. Create a passage with basket lamps that guide them through the room while spreading an unforgettable light.

With multiple lamps hanging together you will experience a sophisticated simplicity and even more so when the lamps move elegantly as a slight breeze moves through the room.

A handmade lamp with a historical origin in rural Vietnam developed into a key element in modern decor.

Fly away on our carpet of palm leaves

Crafts merged with durability and quality that can be felt when the feet are gently placed on the rug. The hand-braided jute and palm carpets create a focal point in the decor, both indoor and in the outdoor space.

The rug will be the first the guest notices when morning dawns and it is time to get up and experience the surroundings. The sensation of the varied surface when moving through the room awakens your senses and lets you experience all impressions.

The important thing is to send the guest home with a prolonged feeling of being out travelling and with a desire to return back soon again.

Let the carpet sink in the sand by the lounge furniture and let it together with the furniture be a part of nature where the guests can let their thoughts fly away while capturing the moment.
